WHAT'S ON for SPRING 2012

LIG & BITTLE | WAITING FOR GODOT | EXPANSE MOVEMENT ARTS FESTIVAL

Concrete Theatre presents Lig & Bittle

January 27: 7pm | January 28: 11am & 2pm

TransAlta Arts Barns – Westbury Theatre

A 2002 Sterling Award-winner written by Elyne Quan and Jared Matsunaga Turnbull, Lig & Bittle is about two people trying to find their place in a hard-to-fit-in world. Lig, who is big, and Bittle, who is little, are invited to Perfeckt Phitt — a mysterious place where they will fit in. On their adventure they discover many things about themselves, about friendship and about what it means to be different from those around you. This engaging and energetic production celebrates the diversity in everyone, and is suitable for ages five and up.

wishbone theatre presents Waiting for Godot

February 1 – 12 | 8pm nightly | 2pm Saturday Pay-What-You-Can matinees

TransAlta Arts Barns – PCL Studio

Samuel Beckett's masterpiece re-imagined. Two friends alone on a road, wait for someone who is sure to arrive. Today. Or tomorrow. Most definitely tomorrow. If not today... wishbone tackles the most important play of the last hundred years. In our accelerated culture — full of information but wanting wisdom, having experience but missing the meaning — does Beckett's masterpiece matter anymore? Do we ...?

Azimuth Theatre presents the Realtors© Expanse Movement Arts Festival

March 8 – March 11

TransAlta Arts Barns – Westbury Theatre

Expanse is a dance and body based performance festival spanning dance, dance theatre, aerial and circus arts, mime, slapstick comedy, performance art and dance for film, produced and presented by Azimuth Theatre. Expanse exists to inspire, investigate and showcase new work in dance— and body—based performance, bringing artists and audiences from diverse backgrounds together in the spirit of innovation.
